

Lifewriting Made Easy!

with
Philip Sherwood

Writer / Editor / Personal Historian and owner of lifewriters.ca

Spring 2015 Seminars

Free Information Session • March 21, 9–11 am. An overview of what is involved in taking your lifewriting project from conception to completion.

Book and Cover Design and Self-publishing • March 28, 2–5 pm. $30. Learn what is involved in getting your life story designed in book form and self-published.

Writing Your Life Story • May 23, 9 am–4 pm, (six hours) $60. Learn how to plan a lifewriting project, master the writing process, and identify best writing practices and strategies.

Interviewing Skills • June 27, 9 am– 12 noon. $30. Learn how to effectively interview family members and others for a life story or family history project.

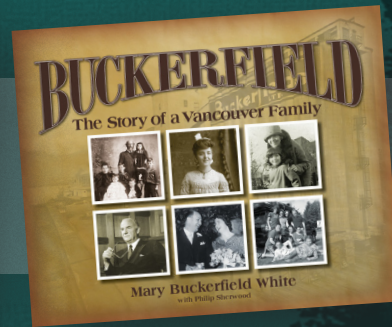

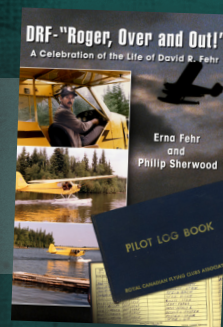

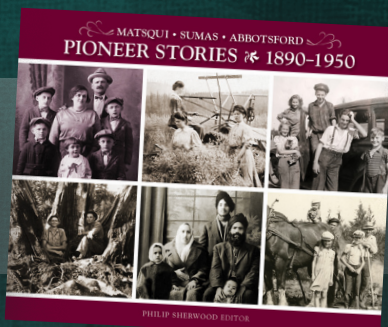

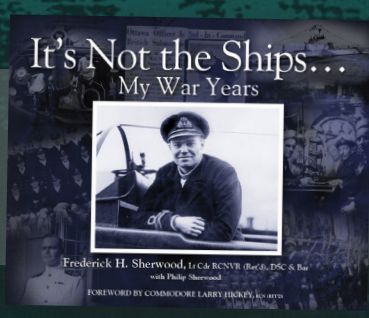

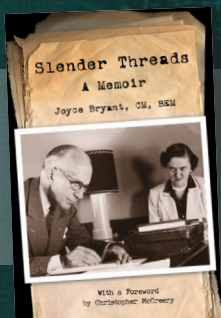

- A list of resources will be provided.
- Seating is limited, and advance registration is required.
- All seminars are held at the MSA Museum, 2313 Ware Street, Abbotsford. Free parking.
- The MSA Museum reserves the right to cancel any seminars if not enough participants enroll.

For more information, to obtain a syllabus, and to register:

Call 604. 853.0313

Email info@msamuseum.ca

Visit www.msamuseum.ca

Bring your questions!